

Jesus said "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matthew 11:28

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

New Jerusalem Church

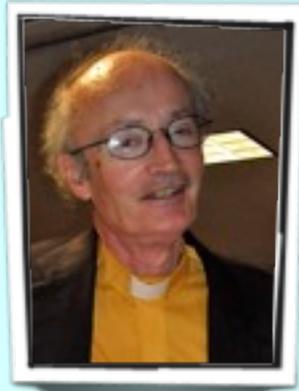

Circa 1845

The foundation of the Boston Society of the New Jerusalem (BSNJ) can be traced back to 1784 and the Green Dragon Tavern in Boston. It was then and there that admirers of, and those interested in learning more about, Emanuel Swedenborg first met to hear a lecture on Swedenborg by James Glen. In 1818, twelve people, some of whom were among the early "Green Dragon Tavern crowd," organized a Swedenborgian Church in the city. Chartered in 1823, the Boston Society of the New Jerusalem, Inc. is the first Swedenborgian Church established in Massachusetts. Members of the Church met at several locations before finally settling in 1845 at its present location atop Beacon Hill. The location inspired the name by which many today know the society: the Church on the Hill (Swedenborgian). Through the years, noted BSNJ members include Timothy Harrington Carter, publisher, and founder of the Old Corner Book Store; Sampson Reed, writer and mentor of Ralph Waldo Emerson; Lydia Maria Child, author, social activist and abolitionist; Warren Felt Evans, writer and healer;

Theophilus Parsons, dean of Harvard Law School; Otis Clapp, apothecary, publisher, member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, co-founder of The Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.), Boston University, and founder of The Home for Little Wanderers; Theophilus P. Chandler, architect; Clarence Barron, financier, editor of the Wall Street Journal, and president of Dow Jones; George James Webb, hymnologist; and The Honorable Malcolm Nichols, Mayor of Boston. A beautiful Gothic Revival structure served the membership until the 1960s when it was replaced with a new Church building and an eighteen story high-rise apartment. Today, the main sanctuary of the Church is accessible from Bowdoin Street. The Church has also served as a place of worship and gatherings for the local Muslim Community and other faith-based communities. The Church has organized and runs many programs to meet the needs of the Church community and larger surrounding neighborhood.

Use of the Church facility is offered to human service and outreach organizations.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR PASTOR

Dear Members and Friends of the Church on the Hill:

In April there is a fuller and fuller coming of spring. The growth of buds, the blooming of flowers, the growth of leaves, the births of creatures are all part of spring. In our own lives we can enter seasons of spring, where new life takes shape with us and in our connections with others.

This month begins with the final Sundays of Lent, a season for searching into what is happening in our lives, where we are going, and what needs to change. Then we enter three observances so important in the Christian year – Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, and Easter. We can recall the events in the life of Jesus remembering connections with our own lives.

This is a time of important change and growth in the church. We are seeking to strengthen connections within the church community, outreaching to members. Also the church is building connections beyond the church community in finding more ways of responding to needs and being of service.

Love and Best Wishes to Each of You,

Ted

Walk For Hunger

May 1, 2011

The Walk for Hunger is an annual tradition and a rite of spring in Massachusetts! Join 40,000 caring friends and neighbors and raise money for those struggling to make ends meet. Since 1969, The Walk for Hunger has been a tradition in Massachusetts. Today, the Walk has become the country's oldest continual pledge walk and the largest one-day fundraiser to alleviate local hunger. On the first Sunday in May each year, more than 40,000 Walkers and 2,000 Volunteers start off from the Boston Common to make a difference in the lives of our neighbors. In Massachusetts, more than 660,000 people do not have enough food to eat. The Walk for Hunger raises millions of dollars for the 400 emergency food programs that support families in crisis. The Walk is still looking for volunteers, whether you want to walk, hand out supplies, or work the finish line, the more help the better!

Our own Mike Bancewicz, Maria McKenzie, and Donald Gonzalez will be walking this year. Also, Rob Day and Donnie MacDougall will be working at the finish line. To join team Church on the Hill as a volunteer or walker, call the Church. The Walk for Hunger is a nationally respected event where all proceeds go towards making sure that no one goes hungry.

Every donation and volunteer effort goes a long way and we hope that you can help make a difference!

Edward J. Mackenzie Jr
Message given to Church on the Hill
March 20, 2011

It brings me comfort and optimism that our Lord did not use the language of the streets – only “hang” with the morally upright citizens of society. He did not only socialize with those who followed God’s law and lived within society’s law.

As well, to our Lord, no person had more claim to heaven based on income or social status.

Jesus Christ lived with and knew the sinners and the saints. He lived with and knew those of means and privilege. And he lived with and knew all so well the outcast of society - the downtrodden, the poor, the oppressed. His name and that of a prostitute, Mary Magdalene, are forever linked not only in tradition or our Faith, but also in that of our civilization. He did not mind.

Our Lord was put to death by the state. He was crucified between two criminals who were suffering the same fate. Because one of the criminals believed – and earnestly sought forgiveness – Jesus told him he would be saved.

Think about it – what faith has as its primary symbol the Cross – an instrument of state sanctioned torture and capital punishment?

I believe that salvation and redemption comes to different people in different ways. But I know that the support and understanding and the enlightenment, I have found in this faith, among you, in this house, feels good and right and full of promise.

I come from a tough background and knew a whole slew of abuse. You see, I was the downtrodden and poor that Christ loved. I was the criminal that Christ saved.

Walking into this church or listening to Rev. Dr. Ted Klein for the first time might not have made me Saul getting hit with the divine light on the way to Damascus, but it was a start of something important, it really was.

You see the life I lived has been complex and one of the streets. It has often been down and dirty. I think that the life of Emanuel Swedenborg appeals to me because he was a scientist, philosopher, and theologian. He was a man of this world living to improve society and believing in salvation. He was real – and a man of God. This resonates with me in a big way.

The journey continues. We can all be happy and most grateful for the blessings that have been given to us. Let us be grateful for all of you helping each other on our journey to become a better Father, Brother, Sister, Mother and contributor to Society.

Thank you God and Rev. Klein, I will do my best to be worthy of it.

SOME THOUGHTS ON REBIRTH

Rev. Dr. Ted Klein

During this time of Spring and as the Season of Lent begins, we can reflect on rebirth in our lives and lives of others. We can observe new life breaking out in nature, and that new life can picture new life breaking out within and among us.. For example, a flower may picture new life in a connection among people, and the growth from a seed the beginnings of something new spiritually.

Pictured in scriptures are a person receiving a new heart (Ezekiel 11:19) and persons being born of the spirit (John 3:5). If we are in a process of rebirth, we are gradually being transformed, becoming a new person. Our part in this process is to turn from what we find with us that contributes to harm and toward what contributes to good. For example, we may be tangled and blind as we are caught up in self concern. Recognizing that we need God and others to change, we may resist the self concern and move into truly caring for others.

Swedenborg compares a person being reborn to the growth of a tree from seed and to the growth of a tree through leaves, blossoms, and fruit (Swedenborg, Arcana Coelestia, no. 5115:2). With rebirth, guided by God and with our continuing efforts, there is progression and growth.

Rebirth as an overall direction goes with specific turnings in our lives, turnings from what harms and blocks to what benefits and serves. Turning in one area of our life may make it easier to turn in other areas. Even when we stumble and fall, we can recover and go forward, together with God and others.

CLOSING PRAYER

God. Help us to consider steps we need to take, turnings needed in our lives. Help us, joining with God and others, to move forward in a path of rebirth. Amen

Cooking Classes Mondays from 4- 6

The Church on the Hill is providing space for a cooking class that will meet weekly at 4 PM in our kitchen. The class, facilitated by Marylou Pierron, will be offering newly housed people cooking lessons as well as advice on how to cook , healthy, easy to prepare meals on a budget. Anyone is welcome to join. We hope this can help inspire more people to cook healthy meals on their own.

Some Thoughts on Resurrection

Late in April we will be celebrating Easter. In our tradition we think of Easter and the resurrection of Jesus. What are resurrections in our lives? How does the resurrection of Jesus relate to our lives?

In the rebirths of spring, the break out of new life, we can see kinds of resurrection. Life continues, new life emerges.

According to our beliefs each of us, at death, continues on in a new life. We are risen and continue as spiritual beings, with a chance to grow more and more fully into the person we can be.

We can approach Jesus as continually with us as we face challenges and find new life in this world. In that way resurrection can happen over and over again in our lives.

God, help raise us from darkness to light, from coldness to warmth, from fear to freedom, from self concern to love and caring. Amen.

Our New Piano!

The Church will be receiving our newly refurbished Steinway Piano on Thursday, March 31. We are very excited to hear how the sound will enhance our growing Sunday Services along with our upcoming Spring Concert, which will be held at the Church on May 15. Mike, Carlton, and Victor travelled to New York City to personally see and hear the piano and were very pleased and excited with what they heard. It is a 100 year old piano which was refurbished, by hand, and completely redone to make it visually stunning as well as upping the sound quality. Victor is ecstatic to finally be able to put this piano to use during the Church Service on Sunday, April 3.

From the Editor

Greetings!

March was an eventful month and April/May look to be even more dynamic. We will be hosting a

Women's Health fair

(see page 3). A Jack and Jill Baby Shower (page 10) Guest Minister Marion Easterling (page 10) Walk for Hunger (page 4) and of course the arrival of our long awaited Steinway piano plus much more. On any given day the church is buzzing with some kind activity, though some times distracting, it is evident that we are blessed with success in building the mission of the church!

Please see the calendar on page 15 for events of the Easter Season.

A contingency from the church attended CMM's 45 Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner. Speaking of CMM, they are awarding us their first Volunteerism Achievement Award! On March 20th we had our fourth "Laity in the Pulpit" this one being led by Eddie Mackenzie with participation from many others. The music, message and inter-activeness made this one very memorable. Being out of town I was sorry to have missed Rev. Manikka's message celebrating Women's History Month, but I have heard that the message was strong and well received.

Congratulations to Mary Guarino for being the winner of last months "Can you name who's who" contest having been able to name 11 of the 12 photos. She will receive a $50 gift card to Scollay Square Restaurant. We are having another contest this month (page 11) and the winner who guesses the most will win a gift card to the 21st Amendment. Call Craig or me at the office or mail in your answers, Good luck!

Blessings,
Mike

Dear Ms. Rogers,

On behalf of Evelyn Lee-Jones, Director of Visual and Performing Arts, the students and faculty at Boston Renaissance Charter Public School and the Board of Trustees, I would like to express our heartfelt thanks for selecting the Boston Renaissance Charter Public School as the recipient of an $8,500.00 contribution from the Boston Society of New Jerusalem, Church on the Hill on February 17, 2011.

The Renaissance village of educators, parents, partners, donors and community members are working hard to enforce a shared vision for every student to reach his or her full potential. In these uncertain times kids and families need to know that they can count on the Renaissance to continue to sustain the many valuable programs that are implemented daily. We are the anchor, offering stability and quality education in an otherwise unstable climate. Your contribution to provide financial support to the Voices of Renaissance and the Young Kings is the cornerstone of our longstanding commitment to educating children and ensuring that the programs and services we offer continue. Your gift signals your commitment and support for our efforts.

Thank you for believing in the potential of every Renaissance student

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is sent to thank you for your printing the programs for the school's musical, "The Pirates Of Penzance". This activity is one of the few times that the students in the school have a chance to work together as sixth, seventh and eighth graders. They learn a great deal about working together, understanding how a project like a musical is put together, learning a lot of musical numbers and also what it means to make a great contribution to their school community. This project also presents an opportunity for students of all levels (advanced students, special needs students, etc) to work together. A number of parents, students and staff come together to make this event very special. We would like you to know that your contribution to this project is great appreciated.

Sincerely,

SWEDENBORG READING New Life in People and in Nature

“... when people are being reborn, spiritual life flows into them, just as when a tree is budding, its life flows in by heat from the sun. One who is born a person is in the Word throughout compared to beings in the vegetable kingdom, especially trees; and this is because the whole vegetable kingdom, as well as the animal kingdom, represents such things as are in people. (Arcana Coelestia, no. 5115)

Guess Who?

Congratulations to Mary Guarino for winning last month. She guessed 11 out of 12. Tied for second were Terry Mazzulli and Anne Klein with 10 out of 12. The answers were from left to right and top to bottom;

Rosie the Riveter, Rosa Parks, Mother Teresa, Eleanor Roosevelt, Helen Keller, Harriet Tubman, Maya Anjelou, Indira Gandhi, Golda Meir, Rachel Revere, Sacagawea, Edith Piaf. April's winner will get a $50 gift card to the 21st Amendment.

Simple Acts of Kindness...

A little boy came up to his mother in the kitchen one evening while she was fixing supper, and handed her a piece of paper that he had been writing on. After his Mom dried her hands on an apron, she read it, and this is what it said:

For cutting the grass: $5.00
 For cleaning up my room this week: $1.00
 For going to the store for you: $.50
 Baby-sitting my kid brother while you went shopping: $.25
 Taking out the garbage: $1.00
 For getting a good report card: $5.00
 For cleaning up and raking the yard: $2.00
 Total owed: $14.75

Well, his mother looked at him standing there, and the boy could see the memories flashing through her mind. She picked up the pen, turned over the paper he'd written on, and this is what she wrote:

For the nine months I carried you while you were growing inside me:
 No Charge
 For all the nights that I've sat up with you, doctored and prayed for you:
 No Charge
 For all the trying times, and all the tears that you've caused through the years:
 No Charge
 For all the nights that were filled with dread, and for the worries I knew were ahead:
 No Charge
 For the toys, food, clothes, and even wiping your nose:
 No Charge

Son, when you add it up, the cost of my love is:
 No Charge.

When the boy finished reading what his mother had written, there were big tears in his eyes, and he looked straight at his mother and said, "Mom, I sure do love you." And then he took the pen and in great big letters he wrote: "PAID IN FULL".

Oasis Book Club meets with Author Lara Bricker after reading her book Lie After Lie.

On March 8th we had the pleasure of inviting Lara Bricker, the author of our last reading selection, to the group for a Q&A session.

Lara is a freelance writer currently residing in Exeter, New Hampshire. This selection was suggested by Michael Bancewicz, an acquaintance of Lara. Lie After Lie: the true story of a master of deception, betrayal, and murder is a true crime story detailing the murder of thirty-one year Julie Keown. Her story book marriage to husband James Keown took a horrific turn when James began poisoning Julie with anti-freeze disguised in Gator-Aide bottles. Her subsequent death resulted in an investigation that began in Waltham, Massachusetts and ended in Missouri from where the couple originated. It's a chilling story and a great read.

Our current reading selection is Mystic River penned by Boston native Dennis Lehane. We are in the promising process of inviting Mr.

Lehane sometime in May to discuss his book, too.

The Oasis Coalition of Boston wishes to extend an invitation welcoming all those interested in attending the book club. Again, we meet each and every Tuesday at 10:am. Books are provided by Oasis at no cost to attendees. Coffee and doughnuts are provided as well.
